BOOKING INFORMATION

The Booking Procedure.

1. Read the tailor-made description (enclosed with this letter) carefully so that you fully understand what you are booking.
2. Read the Terms & Conditions of booking. If you have any questions on any aspect of your itinerary booking, please do not hesitate to phone or write to us for full clarification.
3. Fill in and return the booking form to us with your deposit cheque or ring the office with your card details.
4. We will then confirm your booking by email.
5. We will send out any final instructions, tickets or other details well in advance.
6. Payment will be due on the evening before your departure.

Terms & Conditions

1. The Contract. The booking form you sign constitutes a contract between you and Aigas Field Centre. Signing the booking form means that you have accepted all the terms and conditions of booking printed here. Our written confirmation of your booking means that we agree to provide the itinerary you have chosen as described in the booking form above.
2. The Deposit. Your booking must be accompanied by a signed booking form and a deposit cheque for the required amount per person. This sum is deducted from the balance of fees due. This is a non returnable deposit unless the booking is cancelled by Aigas Field Centre.
3. The Fees. The balance of fees due for your itinerary must be paid the evening before your departure.
4. Late Bookings. Late or last minute bookings or alterations can be accepted provided they are accompanied by full fees.
5. Cancellation by Us. In the event of Aigas Field Centre having to cancel the itinerary we shall refund to you all the deposits and fees you have paid to us for that itinerary. The refund of these monies obviates all liability on our part.
6. Alterations to the Itinerary. The nature of our work is such that from time to time we have to make alterations to plans. Aigas Field Centre reserves the right to make such changes or to modify the itinerary or alter the leadership or accommodation arrangements as necessary. We shall always do everything we can to ensure that such changes do not materially affect the quality of the itinerary.
7. Health & Fitness. The nature of our work and the places we go to require that participants are in reasonable health and are able to walk on uneven ground off paths and trails. Our itineraries may not be suited to certain disabilities and if you are in any doubt about your suitability please ask us at the time of booking. We reserve the right to decline any booking which we feel may compromise the operation of a itinerary. It is a condition of booking that participants accept this responsibility to inform us. In the event that a participant does not inform us of a condition or disability which materially affects the operation of the booked itinerary we reserve the right to cancel that booking and impose any appropriate cancellation charges.
8. The Aigas Code. For the purposes of safety, environmental protection and nature conservation, all Aigas Field Centre itineraries and activities are operated under the Aigas Code of Conduct. This requires that the Aigas ranger or other appointed group leader has the right to take all operational decisions in the field.
9. Liability. Aigas Field Centre will accept no liability for any losses or additional or unexpected expenses incurred as a result of scheduled transport delays, personal injury, sickness, weather, industrial action, war or act of terrorism or act of God or any other event entirely beyond our control.
10. The Law. These terms and conditions do not affect your rights in law. The booking contract is governed by Scottish Law and is subject to the jurisdiction of the Scottish courts.

Tailor-Made Itineraries 2012

To use Aigas as a base for your own expeditions is to combine staying in a beautiful place with the friendly expertise of Scotland's premier nature centre. The package we offer to those who may not wish to join an organized group enables you to use our facilities and rangers, as well as stay in one of our lodges on a B&B basis. We can help you decide where to go, what to see, and where to find it. We can lead you there if you need professional help. You can combine castles with gardens, glens and golden eagles, dolphins and seals or just magnificent scenery. You can explore both east or west coasts in a day, come home to a log fire and an Aigas dinner, and then spend an hour or two in the badger and pine marten hide, or beaver hide. Go on, give it a go!

We invite you design your own holiday. Take our basic package and add to it from a range of optional extras.

Our basic package is £95.00 per person per night (children under 12 half price) and includes:

- Accommodation in our timber lodges set in the Aigas arboretum
- Breakfast in the House of Aigas
- Expert advice on your own expeditions
- Open access to the library and common room in the main house
- Open access to the Aigas trails around the loch, up to the Iron-age fort and Bronze-age hut circles
- Open access to the tree-top hide

The Round House - double and bunk room £114.50 pppn (based on double occupancy)

The House of Aigas rooms - Affric room (double) £114.50 pppn
- Eskadale room (twin) £90.00 pppn
